

18 but it can occur.

19 Q. But on May 12, 2014 when you examined him about a month
20 ago, he told you that he had been tortured in Syria, isn't that 21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And as you sit there now, you don't know if that's true or
24 not, is that correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And you know that Mr. Everdell says it's not true?

2 MR. EVERDELL: Objection.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 Q. What exactly did Mr. Everdell say about him being tortured
5 in Syria?

6 A. I don't think I wrote down verbatim what Mr. Everdell said,
7 but I think that my recollection was that he was not, quote,
8 renditioned. And I think there was, if I remember correctly,
9 some hesitation that there may be things that I am not
10 privileged to know. That's my recollection. But I'm not sure
11 if it was about that specific event or about other things
12 involved with this defendant.

13 Q. Well, those things that you were not privileged to know may 14 have affected your analysis as to whether or not he's
